

GIANCARLO MILIANTI

Graduated in Law from the University of Pisa in 1995, he began his career in the pharmaceutical industry. From 1996 to 2000, he was an officer at Unione Industriale Pisana - Confindustria operating in the HR Services area with tasks encompassing labour relations, training, organizational consultancy and human resources management. In 2000 he joined Marconi Communications S.p.A. (Marconi PLC Group) and filled several positions with increasing responsibilities until 2005 in HR Function. When the Marconi Group was acquired by Ericsson in 2005, he began his experience with the Swedish multinational and was eventually appointed Head of Human Resources for the Opto Division with units and plants in Italy and in the United Kingdom and Head of HR for Marconi Sud S.p.A.. In 2009 he joined Piaggio Group as Executive Vice President Human Resources and Organization.