

Giovanni Barbara

Giovanni Barbara is Chairman of the Board of Statutory Auditors of the Company from 2004 to april 2015.

Mr. Barbara graduated in Law in 1984 and obtained the specialization as Tax Expert at the University of Rome in 1986, the LLP at Yale University in 1987 and, in 2002, the Banking and Finance Master at INSEAD International Banking School of Fontainbleau (France).

He is lawyer since 1986 and he is Partner of the law firm KStudio Associato of Milano, correspondent of KPMG International, where he is also the national coordinator of Banking, Finance and Insurance Industry as well as Mergers & Acquisitions. He is legal and tax advisor for bank and industrial restructuring operations.

Starting from 2002 he is professor at Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore of Milan. Speaker during conventions and author of publications, he is the scientific coordinator of the Master "Banca, Finanza e Mercati" managed by Il Sole 24 Ore.

Upon recommendation by the Bank of Italy he has been appointed by the Treasury Ministry as a member of the Supervisory Board of banks in extraordinary administration.

Giovanni Barbara is currently Chairman of the Board of Statutory Auditors, among others, of the following companies: Alitalia – Compagnia Aerea Italiana S.p.A., Cai First, Cai Second, Credit Suisse (Italy) S.p.A., Credit Suisse Servizi Fiduciari S.r.l., Direct Line Insurance S.p.A., State Street Bank S.p.A. and State Street Holdings Italy S.r.l.