

Giuseppe Tesaurò

- Born in Naples, November 15th , 1942. Married with three children
- He attended the secondary school focusing on humanities, in Naples. 1964, Bachelor's in Law, with honors.
- From 1965, he worked as an assistant professor in International Law, in the same University.
- Recipient of Von Humboldt Stiftung's scholarship at the Max Planck Institut of Heidelberg for two years, 1967/68.
- Professor of International Law at the Law University of Messina from 1972 to 1976, at the Political Science University of Naples from 1976 to 1981 and at the Business University of Rome, La Sapienza, from 1982 to 1994.
- Director of the Postgraduate School of European Law at the University of Rome from 1984 to 1988.
- Professor of European Law at the Law School of the University of Naples since 1994.
- Member of the Counsel for Legal Affairs of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, 1987/88.
- Member of the scientific committee of: Italian Magazine of public community law , the law of the European Union , World Competition , studies on the European integration.
- Lawyer entitled to the Higher Courts since 1972
- Advocate General of the Court of Justice of the European Communities from 1988 to 1998
- President of the Antitrust Authority from 1998 to 2005
- On the 24th of April 2001 he was awarded as "Cavaliere della Gran Croce".
- Honorary degree from the University of Paris II – Pantheon - 2004
- President of the Italian Association of the European Jurists
- Appointed judge of the Constitutional Court by the President of the Republic, on the 8th of November 2005 and elected President of the Court in the 2014.
- Emeritus President of the Constitutional Court from the 19th of November 2014.