

Michele Colaninno

curriculum vitae

Michele Colaninno was born on 23 November 1976 in Mantua. He holds a degree in Business & Economics from the Catholic University of Milan.

He is Chief Executive Officer of Omniaholding S.p.A., the company that controls Immsi S.p.A., an industrial holding with interests in finance, real estate and manufacturing through a series of equity investments, with turnover of more than 1.5 billion euro (in 2019).

Michele Colaninno is Chief Executive Officer and Chief Operating Officer of the Immsi Group, which controls the Piaggio Group and also holds investments in a number of important Italian industrial groups.

In the Piaggio Group, Michele Colaninno is a member of the Piaggio & C. S.p.A. Board of Directors, with responsibility for strategic development, products, marketing and innovation, and a founder and Chair of Piaggio Fast Forward, the Group company headquartered in Boston, USA, which operates in robotics and develops innovative solutions for the mobility of the future.

In 2017 Michele Colaninno delivered a lecture at the Harvard University I-Lab on the impact of robotics and artificial intelligence on daily life in which he linked the new innovations to the Piaggio Group's Design Thinking process.

In addition to his positions as Chief Executive Officer of Omniinvest S.p.A. and Chair of the Board of ISM Investimenti S.p.A., Michele Colaninno is Vice President of ACEM (Association des Constructeurs Européens de Motocycles – the European motorcycle industry association), and a director on the boards of Intermarine S.p.A., RCN Finanziaria S.p.A., Is Molas S.p.A., Immsi Audit S.c.a.r.l..

From April 2010 to August 2016, he was Deputy Chair and a director of Banca Popolare di Mantova.